The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, July 7, 1763. [N°. 948.]

LONDON, April 20.

THE Right Hon. Henry Fox, Eſq; is created Earl of Holland, by the Title of Lord Holland.

The Right Hon. John Viſcount Ligonier is created a Baron of Great-Britain, by the Title of Lord Ligonier, Baron of Ripley.

On Monday laſt the Marquis of Granby kiſſed the King's Hand, on his being appointed Maſter of the Ordnance. As did likewiſe General Townſend, as Lieutenant of the Ordnance.

As it is expected that ſome Diſturbances may happen on the Commencement of the additional Duties on Cyder, we hear, but hope it is not true, that three Regiments are ordered to march into the Cyder Counties to ſuppreſs any Diſturbances that probably will happen.

One of the greateſt Grievances, perhaps, in the Cyder-act, though not hitherto mentioned, as we know of, is that by the Clauſe which enacts, that no one ſhall lend out his Veſſels for making Cyder, the poorer Sort of People in the Country, who commonly have a few Apples, but no Veſſels, will be deprived of the only Means that Providence has ſent them, of furniſhing them with that wholeſome Liquor.

The Right Hon. the Lord d'Eſpencer is appointed Maſter of the King's Wardrobe, in the Room of the Earl of Gower.

His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is appointed Lord Privy Seal, in the Room of the Duke of Bedford.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt is made Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, in the Room of the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

And the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Weymouth is appointed Maſter of the Horſe to her Majeſty, in the Room of the Earl of Harcourt.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint John Roſs Mackey, Eſq; Member for Kirkcudbright in Scotland, Treaſurer and Paymaſter of the Ordnance, on which Account his Seat is vacated in Parliament.

On Monday laſt his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York dined with Sir John Hind Cotton, &c. at the Brewhouſe in St. Katharine's, upon Beef Stakes dreſſed upon Coals in the Stock Hole of the ſaid Brewhouſe.

The Right Hon. William Earl of Shelburne, the Right Hon. Stephen Earl of Ilcheſter, Charles Spencer, Eſq; commonly called Lord Charles Spencer, Comptroller of his Majeſty's Houſhold, Richard Rigby and James Oſwald, Eſquires, were this Day Sworn of his Majeſty's moſt Hon. Privy Council.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Sir Richard Lyttleton, Knight of the Bath, to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Iſland of Minorca.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Robert Murray, Eſq; the Office of Receiver General and Caſhier of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in Scotland; and alſo the Office of Receiver General of his Majeſty's Duties on Salt made in Scotland.

April 25. A Fleet of Obſervation is ordered to the Weſt-Indies, to be commanded by Admiral Tyrrel, and to be ſtationed there for three Years.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled,

Moſt humbly ſheweth,

"THAT your Petitioners are fully convinced, that the collecting the Duties intended to be laid on the Makers of Cyder and Perry, by Way of Exciſe, is not, nor can in many Inſtances be ſo regulated, but that it will occaſion numberleſs Difficulties and Queſtions.

"That the Method of Trial and Deciſion of Exciſe Diſputes are founded only on [illegible], being in their Nature arbitrary, and inconſiſtent with the Principles of Liberty, and the happy Conſtitution of your Majeſty's Government.

"That the expoſing private Houſes to be entered into and ſearched, at Pleaſure, by Perſons unknown, will be a Badge of Slavery upon your People.

"That your Petitioners, firmly confiding in your Majeſty's Favour, and filled with a moſt humble and grateful Senſe of your paternal Affection for your People, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to protect their Liberties, and keep them happy, and [illegible]; free in their Property. By which your Majeſty will erect a laſting Monument of your Goodneſs in every Houſe in the Kingdom.

"Your Petitioners therefore moſt humbly implore your Majeſty, that you will not give your Royal Aſſent to ſo much of the Bill, as ſubjects the Makers of Cyder and Perry to Exciſe Laws.

"And your Petitioners ſhall ever pray, &c."

April 28, 29, 30. During the Courſe of laſt Seſſions [illegible] Bills received the Royal Aſſent, including the very [illegible] Bill for laying additional Duties on Wine, Cyder, and Perry; which, it is now ſaid, to ſtop the Mouths of popular Clamour, will be repealed next Seſſion.

It is ſtill ſaid there will be more Exchanges and Removals at Court. Time will diſcover what they be. However it is to be hoped that at laſt Things will be ſettled to the Satisfaction of all Parties, which is the Wiſh of every good Man.

Affairs remain in the ſame [illegible] Situation at Court: ſeveral more Alterations and Promotions, it is ſaid, will ſoon be made; but as we cannot with Certainty inſert Names, we think it prudent to defer our [illegible], till it can be done by proper Authority.

Mr. Wilkes, it is ſaid, diſputed the Authority of the Meſſengers the firſt Time of their coming to his Houſe.

Yeſterday the Rev. Mr. Preſton was brought to the Court of King's Bench, to receive Judgment for publiſhing a Libel; when the Court [illegible] he was remanded back to [illegible].

The Rev. Mr. Churchill was [illegible] to the Earl of Halifax's [illegible]

The North-Briton did not make his Appearance laſt Saturday. Perhaps, as he is in ſtrong Hold, he is not allowed the Uſe of Pen, Ink and Paper. But a new Combatant has entered the Political Liſts, under the Appellation of, The Champion. His preſent Attempt is levelled directly at the now openly avowed Author of the North-Briton, and his Reverend Friend, the Author of, The Prophecy of Famine. Of the firſt he ſays, That Envy, Malice, and Preſumption alone guided his Pen; of the latter, that, he writes for Bread, &c.

The Hand of Authority being lifted up, in order to fall heavily on ſuch Political Writers as may diſpleaſe, whereby, [illegible] the Monitor of Saturday, is more cautious. He [illegible] talks about Liberty, which, he ſays is the Eſſence of our National Conſtitution.

Notwithſtanding the Number of Seamen that are now out of Employ, in and about this Metropolis only, ſeveral Ships that are to be employed in the Greenland Fiſhery, the preſent Seaſon, are detained in the River for want of Hands, tho' all proper Encouragement is given them to enter into the Service.

St. James's, April 20. His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to declare the Right Hon. Hugh Earl of Northumberland, Lieutenant General, and General Governor of his Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

Whitehall, April 23. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. William Earl of Shelburne, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, Edward Bacon, the Hon. John York, and George Rice, Eſquires, the Right Hon. Francis Baron Orwell, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Bamber Gaſcoigne, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for promoting Trade and Plantations in America.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Earl of Sandwich, George Hay, Doctor of Laws, the Right Hon. Hans Stanley, Eſq; the Right Hon. John Lord Carysfort, the Right Hon. Richard Lord Viſcount Howe, the Right Hon. Henry Lord Digby, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Thomas Pitt, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain.

BOSTON, June 16.

We hear that Col. MONTAGUE WILMOT, of his Majeſty's 45th Regiment, is appointed Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Nova-Scotia, in the Room of the Hon. JONATHAN BELCHER, Eſquire.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 24.

"In my laſt I could give you no particular Account of the Changes in the Miniſtry after the Prorogation of the Parliament, a Seſſion brought [illegible] with an excellent Speech from the Throne.—Under the Circumſtances the late great Miniſter was in, a Bill for an additional Exciſe on Cyder and Perry was bro't into Parliament, and carried: It gave great Diſguſt to the Nation, and inflamed the City. Lord B— was mobb'd and confined to his Houſe for three Days; this was attended with ſuch Circumſtances that no public Buſineſs was carried on for ſeveral Days. The K—g greatly incens'd, made a Sacrifice of Lord B— as being the Object of public Odium, but declar'd that he never would conſent to the former Adminiſtration, i. e. Pitt's being in again; that as a King, jealous of the Rights of his People, their Happineſs ſhould be his Study; but never would he allow himſelf to be led by the Spirit of Party, too fatally kindled."

Extract of a Letter from Martinico, May 1.

"A Packet arrived here from England two Days ago, by which we learn, that this Place is to be given up the 10th of June. The Frenchmen are very ſaucy now, and will be ſo when they have the entire Command; Mr. [illegible] Store was broke open laſt Night, and ſundry Things belonging to the Cargo of the Brig Mermaid of Boſton, ſtole away: There are no French Ships here, except one ſmall Man of War: A Spaniſh Privateer, or rather Pirate, has within two or three Days paſt taken four Veſſels off Dominico, and put the People aſhore there."

The Report of a Biſhop being ſent to America gains Credit; and the two Colleges of New-York and Philadelphia have received great Encouragement.

PROVIDENCE, June 18.

On Wedneſday laſt Mr. Joſeph Weſcott, late Mariner on board the Sloop Kinnicutt, Capt. George Hopkins, of this Port, arrived here (via New-London) from St. Chriſtophers, by whom we have the following Account of the Capture of ſaid Veſſel, on her Voyage from Surrinam to this Port, viz. On the 27th of March they ſailed from Surrinam, and four Days after they left the River, they unfortunately fell in with a Spaniſh Privateer Schooner, mounting eight Swivel Guns, manned chiefly with Mulattoes, who immediately boarded and took Poſſeſſion of the Sloop, and carried Capt. Hopkins and his People on board the Privateer: She then proceeded with her Prize to Trinidad, from whence, it ſeems, the Governor of that Place had diſpatched this Veſſel to cruiſe on the Engliſh, and pretended he had received no Orders from Spain for a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities: He was highly offended with the Captain for returning with ſo ſmall a Booty as one Veſſel, and ſent her out again directly, without permitting any of the Engliſhmen to come on Shore, with ſtrict Injunctions not to return again till he had taken 6 or 8 Sail, or ſomething more worthy of his Notice. The Prize Sloop was then ſent off for St. Euſtatius, to ſell her Cargo, after taking out about 17 or 18 Hogſheads of Molaſſes.—The Captain of the Privateer, being unwilling to keep ſo many Engliſhmen on board (being nine in Number) made ſeveral Attempts to land them on a [illegible] Iſland, but was [illegible] prevented from effecting his diabolical Deſign by contrary Winds; at length he ſet our Informant and [illegible] ſome of them, [illegible] Capt. Hopkins, [illegible] and one of his [illegible] on board the Privateer. The People aſhore unexpectedly met with very kind Treatment from the Natives, with whom they continued about a Month, when an Engliſh Veſſel arrived on that Coaſt, on board of which they embarked, and came to St. Kitts; from thence ſome of the People went down to St. Euſtatius, where they found the Sloop ſafely moor'd, and were informed that her Cargo was all ſold. Though this Misfortune is an Aggravation to the repeated Loſſes this Place has ſuſtained in Navigation (having loſt near 60 Sail within 7 Years paſt) yet it ſeems obliterated in the univerſal Joy the Safety of Capt. Hopkins and his People has given the Inhabitants of this Town, who apprehended a worſe Fate had befallen them.

Mr. Weſcott further adviſes, that he was told by an Engliſh Lad on board the Privateer, that an Account of the Peace had been received at Trinidad, but he did not know from whence; and that the Governor was appointed there only for two Years; by which it ſeems as if he intended to make his Fortune, at all Events, while he had Power in his Hands.——It is not doubted but ample Reſtitution will be made for this Violation of the late eſtabliſhed Peace, and, if this Governor has acted an unjuſt Part, he will meet with his Deſerts upon a proper Application to the Spaniſh Court, eſpecially as they have ſo recently experienced the fatal Effects of provoking Britiſh Reſentment.

NEW-YORK, June 23.

On Tueſday Evening an Expreſs arrived from Albany, with Diſpatches for his Excellency Sir Jeffery Amherſt, from the Commanding Officer at Detroit: And, we hear, brings an Account of the baſe and treacherous Behaviour of the Indians, in thoſe Parts; they having on the 7th of May, to the Number of Three Hundred, come to the Fort in a friendly Manner, to pay, as they ſaid, a formal Viſit; but the commanding Officer luckily got Intelligence of their Evil Deſigns the Night before; and was ſo much on his Guard, that the Indians, who were armed with Knives, Tomahawks, and a great many with Guns cut ſhort, and hid under their Blankets, when they ſaw the Diſpoſition of the Garriſon, and that their Deſigns were diſcovered, went off after receiving a few Preſents: They, however, ſent out Parties, who committed ſeveral Barbarities on ſome of our People, who unfortunately happened to be at a Diſtance from the Fort; and had afterwards the Aſſurance to come with a Pipe of Peace, deſiring to be admitted into the Fort, no Doubt with an Intention to cut off the whole Garriſon: But the commanding Officer having refuſed to receive any beſides their Chiefs, the next Day they inveſted the Fort, and commenced Hoſtilities; but could make no Impreſſion whatever on the Garriſon, who bravely defended themſelves, and were well ſupplied with Proviſions and Ammunition.—We hear that Reinforcements are ſent, which, we hope, will get there in good Time, not only to ſave that Poſt, but to pour Vengeance on the Heads of thoſe Barbarians, who have thus perfidiouſly attacked their Benefactors.

We hear that the King of Spain has made Monte Chriſto a free Port for all Nations, they paying 5 per Cent Duty upon all Goods exported from thence.

June 27. His Excellency Governor MONCKTON, embarks To-morrow for England, on board the Edward, Capt. Davis; his Excellency, we hear, having reſigned the Seals for that Purpoſe on Saturday laſt, to his Honour Lieutenant Governor COLDEN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.

Tuſcarowas, May 27, 1763, Eleven o'Clock at Night.

King Beaver, Shingas, Wyendoughets, Wingenum, and Daniel and William Anderſon, all Chiefs of the Delawares, came to my Houſe, and, by a String of Wampum, delivered me the following Intelligence, viz.

BROTHER,

OUT of the Love we have for you, and the Friendſhip that has always ſubſiſted between our Grandfathers and the Engliſh (which has been lately renewed by us) we come now to inform you what News we have heard, which you may depend upon is Truth.——

BROTHER,

At Detroit, we hear, there is not one Engliſhman left alive. At St. Duſky all were put to Death, five Days ago, except the Officer, who is taken Priſoner. And at [illegible] Point ſix Men were killed, and two Perſons taken Priſoners, being Hugh Crawford, and a Boy that ſpeaks Shawaneſe.

BROTHER,

We have heard To-day from the Salt-Licks, that 5 white Men were killed there. We have likewiſe heard, that a Number of Tracks have been ſeen on the Road from St. Duſky here, not far off, and we have ſent out a Man to watch their Motions. We have likewiſe ſeen Tracks paſſing the Road between here and Guiahoga.

BROTHER,

We love you, and would be ſorry to ſee you killed in our Town: So we deſire you not to think of any Thing you have here, but with all Speed, make the beſt of your Way to ſome Place of Safety, carefully avoiding the Roads and all Places where Indians reſort.

BROTHER,

We deſire you to tell George Croghan, [illegible] Men that they muſt not [illegible] any Thing [illegible] Thing. When they went to [illegible] People, they did not tell us, but went another Road; [illegible] if they want to know the Reaſon of this, they muſt go the very ſame Road to enquire of it. And if they want any Thing of us, they muſt only ſend [illegible] two Men, and we will hear them.

BROTHERS the ENGLISH,

We thought that your King had made a Peace with us and all the Weſtern Indians: For our Part we intend it heartily, and to hold it always good, [illegible] as long as we live; [illegible] one Side of the Road, ſo that ye may paſs to one another, and do what you pleaſe, and we will take no Notice of it.

BROTHER,

There is one White Man at Gaishooga; don't be concerned about him; we will take Care to ſend him ſafe home.

BROTHER,

As to what Goods you have here, we promiſe they ſhall be kept ſafe for ſix Months; perhaps by that Time we may ſee you, or ſend you Word what you may expect us to do further. THOMAS CALHOON."

Extract of a Letter from Carliſle, June 20.

"We are yet in Suſpenſe whether the Indians will carry the War into our inhabited Parts, but that they certainly intended it, is to me beyond any Doubt.—About the 14th Inſtant a Man, who went out to catch a Horſe at Ligonier, was killed, or carried off, almoſt in View of that Garriſon.—An Indian, who has a white Woman to Wife, is now on his Way, with ſome white People, flying from Patowmack, and ſays, the Indians have acquainted him with their Intentions, viz. That they deſign to carry the War to as great an Extent as they can, in which a great many Tribes are joined: That they are to attack the Inhabitants in the Seaſon of Harveſt: That they are to burn and deſtroy all Sorts of Proviſion: And that they are determined to make no Priſoners, but kill all that fall into their Hands.—This Account I have from different People, who talked with the Indian at Shippenſburgh.—The Country is in great Diſtreſs, occaſioned by the People leaving their Plantations."

In a Letter from Shippenſburgh, of the ſame Date with the above, it is ſaid the Inhabitants are in the greateſt Conſternation there, expecting the Enemy ſoon in the Valley, as they had heard of ſome People being killed at Bedford.

By ſeveral Letters from Fort-Bedford, of the 18th Inſt. we have the following Particulars, viz. That the poor Farmers, who had left their Places, and come into the Fort, had return'd to their Plantations again, at the Riſk of their Lives, for the Preſervation of their Crops, in order to prevent ſtarving in the Winter: That the Enemy, ever watchful for ſuch Opportunities, had ſtruck a ſevere Blow on Denning's Creek, where three or four Families were murdered and ſcalped on the 17th and 18th: That it was not known what Courſe the Indians would take next, but that it was abſolutely neceſſary for every one to be on his Guard: That ſome who left the Garriſon were returned, lamenting, from their fatal Experience, that they did not, as they had been adviſed, go to each others Plantations in Bodies, and not by Two's and Three's: That a Dog (belonging to one James Clark, who had gone with another Man to plough their Corn, about twelve Miles from the Fort) came into the Garriſon wounded; upon which a ſcouting Party went out, and returned with a Spear they found ſticking in the Body of ſaid Clark, who was ſcalped, and inhumanly mangled; but were afraid to hunt for the other Man, as they perceived a Number of Indian Tracks in the Woods: That a Man and his Wife, who lived about eight Miles from Bedford, had juſt come in, and informed, that being in a Corn Field, near their Houſe, they heard a Gun go off, when a Cry enſued, and ſoon after ſix Guns more were fired, which obliged them to ſet off, for the Fort: And that about an Hour after they got in, their Houſe was ſeen in Flames, and, it was feared, all that were in it deſtroyed.

Extract of a Letter from Pittſburgh, June 16, 1763.

"We are informed by a Priſoner, who had been amongſt the Shawaneſe Indians, that, in making his Eſcape from them, he overtook Mr. Calhoon, and nine of his Men, who traded at Tuſkerawas; alſo two Men of Aliſon & M'Crea's, who were driving Horſes loaded with Skins from the Lower Shawaneſe Town, who told him, that the Delaware Indians had informed Mr. Calhoon, that St. Duſky was ſurpriſed and taken by the Indians, the Garriſon and all the Traders there murdered, except Lieutenant Pauley, the Officer, who commanded, whom they made Priſoner: That Detroit had been beſieged ten Days before this happened: That Mr. Crawford, a Trader at Meamy River, was taken Priſoner, with one of his Men: That the Indians had killed ſix other Men who were in Company with him, coming down the River with Skins: That the Delaware Indians deſired Mr. Calhoon to leave that Place immediately, leſt he ſhould be killed by the Indians who began the War; then ſeized his Goods, and diſarmed him, and the Reſt of his Men, and ſent two Indians to conduct them to this Place, who brought them by unfrequented Roads to Beaver Creek, about 30 Miles from this Fort, where they led them into an Ambuſcade of Six Nation Indians, who attacked them, and he believed killed the whole Party of white Men, as he ſaw none eſcape but himſelf; however, at different Times, within three Days after, Mr. Calhoon, and two of his Men, arrived here, who alſo, with great Difficulty, made their Eſcape; the reſt of the Party, eight in Number, were all killed by the Indians.—The 7th Inſtant Mr. Wilkins, and an Expreſs from Venango, arrived here, who brought Letters from Preſque-Iſle, informing us, that a large Quantity of Proviſions, from Niagara to Detroit, eſcorted by about One Hundred Men, was attacked within 18 Miles of Detroit, in the Night, by a Party of Indians, who deſtroyed all the Proviſions, and killed 67 Men of the Party. Detroit is the only Garriſon we have beyond this that can make any Defence. The reſt of our Garriſons to the Weſtward, I think, before this Time are all maſſacred. Since the 29th of laſt Month every Perſon here, fit to carry Arms, has undergone the ſevereſt Military Duty; and, by the Care of the Commander, and the reſt of the Officers, the Fort is now in a good Poſture of Defence. Not a Man goes without Gunſhot of the Fort, who is not fired at by the Indians. What Number there is of them about us we are ignorant of, as the Commander will not ſuffer the Men to expoſe themſelves to the Danger of the Enemy, except in the Defence of the Fort. Yeſterday we had one Man killed, who ventured a little farther from a Party which was out for Forage than he had Orders; and laſt Night the Indians had the Impudence to fire pretty briſkly for ſome Time upon our Centries in the Fort. The Garriſon in general are all in good Spirits, and I think they need not be under any Apprehenſions that the Indians will be able to take the Place."

Extract of another Letter from Pittſburgh, of the ſame Date.

"We have Alarms from, and Skirmiſhes with, the Indians every Day; but they have done us little Harm as yet.—Yeſterday I was out with a Party of Men, when we were fired upon, and one of the Serjeants was killed; but we beat off the Indians, and brought the Man in with his Scalp on.—Laſt Night the Bullock Guard was fired upon, when one Cow was killed.—We are obliged to be on Duty Night and Day.—The Indians have cut off above 100 of our Traders in the Woods, beſides all our little Poſts.—We have Plenty of Proviſions; and the Fort is in ſuch a good Poſture of Defence, that, with God's Aſſiſtance, we can defend it againſt 1000 Indians."

Extract of a Letter from Winchester, in Virginia, June 22.

"Laſt Night I reached this Place, I have been at Fort-Cumberland ſeveral Days, but the Indians having killed 9 People, and burnt ſeveral Houſes near Fort-Bedford, made me think it prudent to remove from thoſe Parts, from which, I ſuppoſe, near 500 Families have run away within this Week.—I aſſure you it was a moſt melancholy Sight, to ſee ſuch Numbers of poor People, who had abandoned their Settlements in ſuch Conſternation and Hurry, that they had hardly any Thing with them but their Children. And what is ſtill worſe, I dare ſay there is not Money enough amongſt the whole Families to maintain a fifth Part of them till the Fall; and none of the poor Creatures can get a Hovel to ſhelter them from the Weather, but lie about ſcattered in the Woods."

A Letter from Fort Bedford, of June 20, mentions a Scouting Party being juſt come in, and brought a Confirmation of three Houſes being burnt, and 7 People killed, but not ſcalped, viz. Three Men, 1 Woman, and 3 Children.

ANNAPOLIS, July 7.

Laſt Week, at Prince-George's Court, a Negro Fellow was Condemn'd, for Poiſoning his Maſter: It is ſaid, that he Tried the Goodneſs of his Medicine, by firſt giving ſome of it to one of his own Children, who ſoon after Died.

By a Man who came to Town laſt Friday, from Winchester, we are informed, That Fort-Ligonier is burnt to Aſhes by the Indians. He ſays, an Expreſs came in there the Sunday before, with the News; and that near 40 People had been killed at Ray's-Town, with many more diſmal Accounts. It is to be hoped, theſe Accounts are exaggerated; but certain it is, that the People on the Weſtern Frontier, are in a moſt diſtreſſed Situation.
